

My First Classical Music App

GET INSPIRED!

Episode 9

Romantic Scavenger Hunt

Composer: Johannes Brahms, He was born in _____ -Died in _____

This long-bearded composer collected _____.

He thought he was wasn't good enough to follow _____, the big musical hero.

Brahms' music is quite _____ but not _____.

TRUE or FALSE (Circle One) Brahms wanted his music to tell stories.

These percussion instruments called _____ look metal dishes.

Brahms wrote at least FIVE _____ Dances

Composer: Pyotr Tchaikovsky, He was born in _____ -Died in _____

This composer was from _____ and full of _____.

His music made people _____ or _____.

Tchaikovsky wrote _____ music which is full of _____ and _____.

_____, the little girl featured in his ballet called _____ is based on her dream about her imaginary _____ and their travels to a magical land full of _____.

The instrument called a _____ has a tinkly sound which sounds like the _____ twirling around.

My First Classical Music App

GET INSPIRED!

Episode 9

20th Century Scavenger Hunt

Composer: Igor Stravinsky, He was born in _____ -Died in _____

His music is known for _____ which makes you tap your feet and makes you get up and _____.

Stravinsky's extraordinary sounds moved _____ music in the 20th century to enter a new and _____ time.

The rhythms in his music are like colorful _____ that are spicy and _____.

The shapes seem to fit perfectly like a jigsaw puzzle.

Stravinsky's ballet called _____ is about a puppet coming to life.

Composer: John Adams, He was born in _____ and is still _____!

He is an American composer who has written _____ music.

This type of music is based on _____ ideas that _____ a bit each time you _____ them.

Listening to this type of music is like staring at a _____ or at the _____.

Adams likes using _____ titles for his pieces like "Short _____ in a _____ Machine."