

Artist: Elaine Comparone

Piece: Les Tourbillons by Jean-Philippe Rameau

At the beginning, which hand is playing the top manual? _____

Did you notice that the keys of the upper manual move even though they are not lowered by her fingers? Can you guess why? _____

Baroque music includes many “decorated notes” which are called _____

Name two things that are different about the harpsichord compared to your piano?

1) _____ 2) _____

Did this inspire you? If so, how? _____

Like:

Harpsichord Facts

The strings on the harpsichord are:                      hammered                      plucked                      strummed

On the harpsichord, a louder sound is made by playing the keys harder:      True      False

What plucks the strings?:      guitar pics                      finger nails                      duck quills

Artist: Jon Schmidt and The Piano Guys Pieces: All of Me, Peponi, One Direction

All of Me: What brand of piano does he play?      Steinway                      Kawaii                      Yamaha

Does he play on more white or black keys in this piece? _____

What “crazy” thing does he do at minute 2:18? _____

Paradise (Peponi): List things you see and hear that make this sound “African”. _____

One Direction: Check the parts of the piano as you see them being “played”:

( ) Strings, ( ) Soundboard, ( ) Hammers, ( ) Cast Iron Rim, ( ) Fall board, ( ) Cello Bow

Did this inspire you? If so, how? _____

Like: